

PCRG Meeting Sat 12th October, York

Venue: DIG, St Saviour's Church, St Saviourgate, York, YO1 8NN.
(<http://digyork.com/>)

Coffee and tea from 10.30am

11.00 Welcome and introduction. David Knight

11.15 Progressing the PCRG Research Agenda and Strategy. Nigel Brown

11.45 The prehistoric ceramics from Heslington East, in context. Cath Neal

12.30 The potential of Yorkshire 'grey literature' reports: some key ceramic assemblages of the last twenty years. Terry Manby

13.00 Pottery viewing and lunch (lunch provided at DIG for those who have booked)

14.00 Bronze Age Pygmy Cups of Northern Britain: recent research. Debbie Hallam

14.30 Iron Age salt working on the Yorkshire coast at Street House, Cleveland. Steve Sherlock

15.00 Prehistoric pottery from excavations on the line of the Easington to Ganstead gas pipeline. Chris Cumberpatch

15.15 Pottery viewing and tea/coffee

16.00 Disperse

Please contact Sarah Percival (secretary@pcrg.org.uk) if you would like to attend as spaces are limited.